Please consult all the requirements, including the repertoire and timing regulations, as detailed in the 2020 Award Rules & Information, pages 11 – 16.

The 2020 Award Rules and Information can be downloaded from the ANPA 2020 Award website www.australianpianoaward.com.au. Select “2020 Rules and Info” from the website menu.

General Information:

Repertoire submissions for performances in Shepparton will not be considered unless made on this official form.

This form must be completed, scanned and emailed to:
info@australianpianoaward.com.au and to njleslie@hotmail.com. Please print using block letters.

Deadline for Repertoire Submission – Friday June 5th, 2020

Those performing in Shepparton must complete the following pages, listing works to be performed in Recitals 1 and 2, along with the details of the 5 to 10 minutes of music not yet performed, appealing to a general audience, as in requirement 3.1 on Page 6 of this form.

These repertoire requirements are designed to provide flexibility of choice, whilst ensuring challenges across a number of areas.

Please read the Applicant’s Declaration on page 2 and then sign.

APPLICANT'S DECLARATION

I understand the above and acknowledge that for my programmes to be approved, I must fulfil the requirements of repertoire and timings.

In making application to the Australian National Piano Award 2020, I acknowledge:

- that it is my responsibility to be available via regular email communication with ANPA at all times and that ANPA cannot make special allowance for any unavailability of communication on my part,
- the deadline of Friday 22nd May in regard to submission of publicity photograph and 200-word biography,
- the deadline of Friday 5th June in regard to the submission of programmes,
- that extensions of the deadlines are not possible under any circumstances and that ANPA will neither consider, nor grant any extensions,
- that, should I fail to supply my material by the respective deadlines, my place will be forfeited and it will be automatic procedure for ANPA to invite the next highest-ranking candidate on the reserve list,
- that, should my place in ANPA be forfeited, ANPA will not be responsible for any travel costs or other arrangements which have been incurred or made on my part.
