

PROFILE

OLIVER SHE, Pianist in the 2018 Australian National Piano Award 3 - 8 September

Born in China and raised in Brisbane, Oliver is a graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music (England) and University of Queensland, having also held an accompanist Fellowship position since 2015 - 2017. Winner of the ABC Symphony Australia Young Performers Awards, Oliver made his concerto debut at the age of 14 with the West Australian Symphony Orchestra.

He won top prize in the 2014 Brant International Piano Competition in Birmingham, England, and has also been recipient of major prizes at the London Beethoven Intercollegiate Piano Competition, ANU Chopin International Piano Competition, Southern Highlands International Piano Competition, Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition and Festival, Yamaha National Piano Competition, and the Australian National Piano Award.

Oliver has performed widely across Australia and in the UK, Germany, Netherlands, Japan, and Korea. Notable appearances include a chamber performance in London's Wigmore Hall in 2015, a concerto with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra at the Sydney Opera House in 2012, and concerto performances with the Queensland Symphony and RNCM Symphony Orchestras.

He has also performed in music festivals both in Australia and abroad, and has been featured on ABC Classic FM and TV on several occasions.

For further information, photos and media interviews please contact:
Nicola Archer, Nicola Archer Communications on 0419 002 769 – nicola@nicolaarcher.com