Adjudicators For 2021

Stephanie McCallum – Australia

Stephanie McCallum is a pianist known internationally, especially for her work on the reclusive Romantic composer, Alkan, as well as nationally for her many recordings and work championing unusual, new and Australian repertoire.

Currently an Associate Professor of Piano at Sydney Conservatorium, University of Sydney, Stephanie's past students have forged exciting, highly successful musical careers in areas as diverse as classical pianism, contemporary repertoire performance, early music, conducting, jazz improvisation and popular music.

During her pianistic career, Stephanie has performed internationally in recital, as soloist with major Australian orchestras and with AustralYSIS, Sydney Alpha Ensemble, ELISION, Australia Ensemble, Australian Chamber Orchestra, Kammer, Halcyon and other groups.

Her live solo performances of Alkan have been described by critics as "titanic", "awe-inspiring", "stupendous", "virtuosic pianism of the highest calibre" and "one of the glories of Australian pianism". She appears on over 40 CDs including 20 solo albums ranging through Liszt, Weber, Magnard, Xenakis and premier recordings of Alkan, Guy Ropartz, Elena Kats-Chernin and newly transcribed Beethoven.

Recent projects include premier performances and recordings of Australian flute and piano music with Laura Chislett-Jones (Flute Vox ABC Classics digital) and a four hands piano partnership with Erin Helyard, playing Alkan, Meyerbeer and Moscheles on historic Erard pianos (TTK005 Le Prophète Works for four hands). Her latest solo CD, on Toccata Classics TOCCO471, comprises premier recordings of piano music by Alexandre Boëly (1785-1858), recorded on an original 1853 Erard piano.

Stephen Savage – United Kingdom/Australia

Stephen Savage received his early training from Dorothy Hesse, a leading student of Tobias Matthay, who taught also Myra Hess and Clifford Curzon. He first came to attention at 16 with a performance of Beethoven's 4th Concerto with the National Youth Orchestra. At this time he was also prize-winner in the Daily Mirror national competition for young pianists and recorded for Classics Club.

His studies at the Royal College of Music were preceded by a year in Vienna, where he worked with Bruno Seidlhofer. At the RCM he won major awards including the Dannreuther Prize for concerto playing and the Worshipful Company of Musicians medal and was granted assistance from the Countess of Munster and Ralph Vaughan Williams Trusts.

His work at the RCM over 4 years with his teacher, the leading UK virtuoso Cyril Smith, led to Stephen becoming his teaching assistant at a time when he was making his initial recital appearances in the London Piano Series at the Wigmore Hall and in many BBC broadcasts, including live appearances in the Invitation Concerts.

His repertoire grew to include new music including works written for him by Roger Smalley (MissaParodia) and Justin Connolly and he became known as an authoritative performer of Tippett's Sonatas, giving local first performances in Australia, Canada and Japan. He took part in piano duo performances with Roger Smalley and they gave the first performances together of Smalley's epic Accord in 1976.

Stephen Savage was soon appointed to the piano staff of the RCM where he also became involved with presenting and conducting new music within the Twentieth Century Ensemble. He later took up an invitation to head up the Piano Department at the Queensland Conservatorium in Brisbane, Australia where he appeared frequently as soloist with most of the country's leading orchestras, collaborating with leading conductors such as Werner Andreas Albert, Nicholas Braithwaite, Omri Hadari, Jorge Mester and Ronald Zollman. Stephen became active in collaboration with visiting composers including Lutoslawski (which led to an invitation to give the local first performance of his Piano Concerto with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra), Tippett (in two visits the second of which in 1990 remains the largest survey of any living composer to be presented in Australia), David del Tredici and Peter Sculthorpe.

Stephen has made acclaimed recordings of works by Beethoven (the last three Sonatas) Debussy, Liszt, Moussorgsky and Tippett. He has appeared in concert and on radio in Canada, Hong Kong, Ireland, New Zealand and Japan as well as Australia and UK. He is Honorary Professor at the Wuhan Conservatoire in China and Visiting Artist to the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. Stephen instituted and taught the original piano programme at the Australian National Academy of Music. He is now Senior Tutor in Piano at the Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester.

Timothy Steeves – Canada

Canadian pianist Timothy Steeves is widely known as one half of Duo Concertante, with his wife, violinist Nancy Dahn. Known for the passion, subtlety, and brilliance of their performances, Duo Concertante have worked together since 1997, developing the exceptionally unified voice that has repeatedly impressed audiences worldwide.

Critics have described their playing as "grace and fire... fury and repose... a triumphant mass of non-stop energy" (WholeNote), "Splendid... a miracle of knowledge and poetry" (Gramophone), "spectacular" (American Record Guide) and have praised their "artistry, poetry, and impeccable technique" (La Scena Musicale). Of a recent Germany tour the Rheinische Post wrote: "Duo Concertante impresses with their technical brilliance, but their musicality is even more special." Recently elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, Tim holds a University Research Professorship at Memorial University's School of Music in St. John's, Newfoundland.

Tim recently released a solo CD of Haydn sonatas on the Marquis Classics label and with Duo Concertante, he has created eleven acclaimed commercial recordings on the ATMA, Marquis Classics, and Centrediscs labels. These include the complete Beethoven Sonatas and J.S. Bach Six Sonatas for Violin and Keyboard which are frequently heard on CBC and have received rave reviews from the international press. Of the Beethoven CD, Music Toronto's John Terauds wrote, "these beautiful interpretations are so good right down to the tiniest of details that they deserve to be called a reference in the contemporary performance of these 10 great pieces". The Wiener Zeitung (Vienna) called it "majesty, passion, and excitement – inspiring".

With the Duo, Tim has commissioned a total of thirty-five new works for violin and piano from many of Canada's leading composers, such as Chan Ka Nin, Kati Agócs, Andrew Staniland, Kelly-Marie Murphy, Alice Ho, Omar Daniel, Clark Ross, Andrew MacDonald, David Scott, Linda Bouchard, and Jean Lesage. His tenth recording released in May 2017 featured works written especially for them by Jocelyn Morlock, Denis Gougeon, Alice Ho, Chan Ka Nin and Andrew Staniland.

Tim maintains a busy touring schedule, with frequent performances across North America, as well as in Europe and China. With Duo Concertante he has appeared at Wigmore Hall (London), Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall (New York), Roy Thomson Hall (Toronto), Old First Church (San Francisco), the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (Los Angeles), the Four Seasons Performing Arts Centre (Toronto), the National Arts Centre (Ottawa), the Forbidden City Concert Hall (Beijing) and the Chapelle du Bon-Pasteur (Montreal). As a concerto soloist, he has appeared with numerous orchestras across Canada. He also performs at music festivals throughout North America, including the Ottawa International Chamber Music Festival, the Cactus Pear Music Festival, Indian River Festival, Colours of Music Festival, Festival of the Sound, Music Toronto, Music Niagara, and the Huntsville Festival. For the past five summers, he has served on the chamber music faculty at Domaine Forget in Quebec.

A highly regarded teacher, Tim has given hundreds of master classes and workshops across Canada. His commitment to working with young musicians gave rise to the annual Tuckamore Chamber Music Festival, which he and Nancy founded in 2000 to bring together young chamber music performers with world-class artists and ensembles for an intensive two weeks of learning and performance.

A native of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan Tim studied primarily in Germany at the Musikhochschulen of Freiburg im Breisgau and Hannover. In addition to his busy career teaching and performing, Tim is also the proud father of children Clara and Sasha and enjoys astronomy and history. He, Nancy and family live in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada.

Shepparton Adjudication

Dates:

Monday, 4th October to Saturday, 9th October 2021

Definitions, Timings & Instructions for listing Works:

DEFINITION OF "A WORK" AND "COMPLETE MAJOR WORK":

"A work" or a "complete major work", refers to a unified composition. For example, a number of Preludes by Debussy would not constitute "a work", however the complete Book 1 or complete Book 2 of Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Paganini would constitute "a work".

The inclusion of a complete Sonata in Recital 1 and a complete major work in Recital 2 is intended to provide the performer with an opportunity to demonstrate the ability to maintain interest and sense of direction over a significant period of time, as well as presenting a clear picture of the structure of a large work.

TIMING

The careful timing of individual items is to ensure that performers will provide a balanced presentation of at least four of the Repertoire Groups. Works should therefore be chosen to fit into these conditions and timings. Please note that the playing time of each work will be checked by the adjudicators and that the maximum time limit of 45 minutes for each Recital must be maintained to ensure the efficiency and fairness in the running of the adjudication. Performers may be stopped if they exceed the timing allowance.

Note 1: A 10% variation in timing will be allowed on a single work/requirement, whilst only a 5% variation will be allowed for the whole performance in each recital.

Note 2: In multi-movement works, spaces between the movements will be included as part of the performance time. Audience applause time is not counted in the timing of works. Breaks between separate works should not exceed one minute, in order to remain within the time limit of 45 minutes for each recital.

Note 3: Each item proposed for performance must show the exact timing in minutes.

IMPORTANT

In order to attain consistency and fairness, the Board of the Australian National Piano Award will follow the repertoire and timing requirements strictly.

REPERTOIRE FAQS:

Answers to frequently asked questions in regard to repertoire can be located at "About the Award" on the ANPA website.

Listing Works:

In addition to providing the timings of each work, entrants should provide complete details of their repertoire showing: Correct Name of Work – Key – Opus Number or other analogous information – Date completed - List of movements where applicable – Composer's name and dates – Timing of work. Please give correct spelling.

E.g.: Sonata in F minor, Op. 57 "Appassionata" (completed 1805)

1. Allegro assai
2. Andante con moto
3. Allegro ma non troppo – Presto. Ludwig van Beethoven (1770 – 1827) – Timing 24'

Note: See Download Pages for the Repertoire Submission Form. Only programmes which are submitted on this form will be considered.

Recitals

Please read carefully the details on this page and on pages 14-16.

The following Recitals are to be performed by the selected applicants, in public, at Shepparton, before the three adjudicators.

Recital 1:

Upper time limit 45 minutes to be strictly observed or the candidate may be stopped. There is no set minimum time for the Recital as a whole, however there are minimum and maximum timing parameters for some of the individual requirements. Performers will present a programme comprising:

- A complete Sonata from Group B of the Repertoire Groups.
- 15 to 20 minutes of music from one of Group C or Group D – not both.
- A work of no more than 10 minutes from a Repertoire Group not yet introduced.

Note 1: The compulsory Australian work, to be played in either the first or second recital, may be included as fulfilling one of the listed requirements, or it may be additional to them, provided the total timing of the recital is not exceeded.

Note 2: Programme choice will be taken into consideration in the adjudication.

Recital 2:

Upper time limit 45 minutes to be strictly observed or the candidate may be stopped. There is no set minimum time for the Recital as a whole, however there are minimum and maximum timing parameters for some of the individual requirements. Performers will present a programme of works not performed in Recital 1 comprising:

- A complete major work of between 15 and 25 minutes duration from one of the Repertoire Groups C or D (not both), other than a group significantly represented in Recital 1.
- Music of between 15 and 20 minutes duration from one of the Repertoire Groups A or E (not both), or any music of the performer's own choice.

Note 1: The compulsory Australian work, to be played in either the first or second recital, may be included as fulfilling one of the listed requirements, or it may be additional to them, so long as the total timing of the recital is not exceeded.

Note 2: Programme choice will be taken into consideration in the adjudication.

After the completion of Recital 2 by all performers, a number of them will be selected to perform in Recital 3.

Recital 3: Semi-Final

Upper time limit 45 minutes to be strictly observed or the candidate may be stopped. There is no set minimum time for the Recital as a whole, however there are minimum and maximum timing parameters for some of the individual requirements.

Performers selected to proceed to Recital 3 (approximately 5 candidates) will choose a programme of not more than 45 minutes duration. The programme must include 5 to 10 minutes of music not yet performed in Recital 1 and Recital 2 and which appeals to a general audience.

The remainder of the programme may contain works already presented in Recitals 1 or 2 or any music of the performer's own choice and will be determined in Shepparton prior to commencement of Recital 3, following consultation with the Artistic Director.

Note: Programme choice will be taken into consideration in the adjudication.

Recital 4: Grand Final

Upper time limit 45 minutes to be strictly observed or the candidate may be stopped. There is no set minimum time for the Recital as a whole, however there are minimum and maximum timing parameters for some of the individual requirements from earlier Recitals. Performers will select a programme of not more than 45 minutes duration.

- Works presented may be the same as those played in Recital 3, or after consultation with the Artistic Director, alternative items from Recitals 1 or 2 may be substituted. The 5 to 10 minutes of music appealing to a general audience, performed in Recital 3, must be included.

Note: Programme choice will be taken into consideration in the adjudication.

Testimonials:

"There is no problem in mentioning the excellence of this particular competition. For the Australian National Piano Award no praise is high enough. It is a distinctive and superb competition in every way. Its philosophy, unlike many music competitions, is clearly stated from the beginning. This is the top national piano competition in Australia, again confirmed by (its) standard."

Rex Hobcroft AM, Initiator and Co-founder of the Sydney International Piano Competition, Adjudicator, Australian National Piano Award 2000

"An event which Australia is going to be taking a lot of notice of in the future is the Australian National Piano Award. This Award has been happening in Shepparton, in Northern Victoria for quite a while, and its process and results have been extraordinary. The amazing thing about Australian music making is that it just gets more extraordinary all the time, demonstrating how much talent, originality and vitality there is amongst the people who make and promote classical music in this country. I believe Shepparton is looking like another kind of Melbourne (International Chamber Competition) or Bayreuth."

Charles Southwood, ABC Classic FM – Presenter, ANPA Finals Concert 14th September 2002 –ABC Radio, September 2002

"The competition provides a context in which young musicians are presented with the possibility of engaging with challenging performance requirements within a context that is remarkable in that it succeeds in driving the event towards the essence of the joys of music making. My time in Shepparton at the 2014 ANPA, albeit brief, left me with many fond memories, not just musical, but more so of the collegiality amongst the contestants and the sense of community within the organization body of the event; and dedicated audience members that keenly followed the competition throughout the intensive week of music making. My only regret from ANPA 2014 is that I'm now unable to further participate in this incredible festival of celebrating our art form."

Alex Raineri, concert pianist and winner, Australian National Piano Award 2014

"The Australian National Piano Award is a biennial highlight on the national musical calendar and a major platform for the finest young pianists in the country to showcase their artistry. A festival of music making, the Award provides a valuable opportunity to hear and exchange ideas with colleagues from around the country, creating a stimulating environment which inspires participants to greater heights."

Daniel De Borah, concert pianist and winner, Australian National Piano Award 2012

"This is one of the best competitions in which I have ever participated either as a competitor or as a member of the jury. The level of playing throughout was on the highest international level. In no other competition in which I adjudicated, the participants told me afterwards that they had felt at ease = adagio. Thanks to the city of Shepparton we, the jury, also felt 'adagio'."

Paul Badura-Skoda, Adjudicator, Australian National Piano Award 2014

"We've had the pleasure of listening to some spectacular performances this year of world-class standard. What a platform Australian National Piano Award provides for burgeoning young talent in this country! Many congratulations to all involved in this wonderful Award".

Clem Leske, Adjudicator, Australian National Piano Award 2016

"The Australian National Piano Award offers the very best in competitions: a supportive, warm environment, multiple recital opportunities throughout the competition, and generous prize money. There's also a chance for useful feedback from the international jury."

Joanna MacGregor OBE, Adjudicator, Australian National Piano Award 2018

The Australian National Piano Award is not just a national piano competition but it is a festival of magnificent piano playing. This year the standard was magnificent with a particularly pleasing wide diversity of conventional and unusual repertoire. This makes ANPA a prestigious event. It attracted support from local music lovers and a capacity audience at the final night. I felt indeed privileged to be a judge and had great pleasure in selecting the artists performing and ultimately choosing the first prize winner, Oliver She.
